

REITOX Academy “Refugees, Drugs and mental health issues in Greece”
Thursday June 21st, 2018

PROGRAMME

| | |
|-------------|--|
| 9:00-9:30 | Registration |
| 9:30-9:45 | Welcoming address and purpose of the meeting: Director of the UMHRI, Professor E. Patsouris / Head of the Greek Focal Point, M. Terzidou |
| 9:45-10:30 | Session 1: European voices Chair: Manina Terzidou, Head of the Greek National Focal Point Professor Manuel Carballo , International Centre for Migration, Health and Development, Geneva "Contemporary migration and drug use: implications for public health". Ilze Jekabsone , Capacity development officer, Reitox and external partners unit, EMCDDA "Migrants and drugs: potential problems and responses" |
| 10:30-12:00 | Session 2: The situation in Greece Chair: Konstantinos Kokkolis, Deputy Director of Implementation OKANA Xenia Passa , Protection Associate, United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees Agis Terzidis , Vice-President of the Hellenic Centre for Diseases Control and Prevention "Migrant flows and public health: implementing CARE and PHILOS programmes" Dore Skordili , Greek National Coordinator of Drugs Office "Actions of the Office on migrants and refugees" Professor Meni Malliori , Professor of Psychiatry, University of Athens, external expert of the UMHRI "Mental health in refugees and caregivers" |

12:00-12:30

Coffee break

12:30-13:00

Session 3: Interventions from drug agencies

Chair: Meni Malliori, Professor of Psychiatry, University of Athens, external expert of the UMHRI

Angeliki Filakouridou, OKANA Research team

“Difficulties, findings and considerations of substance use survey conducted in the refugee camps”

Dimitris Giannatos, Head of KETHEA MOSAIC programme

“Support services for refugee and migrant dependent users”

13:00-13:30

Session 4: The experience of NGOs

Chair: Marianella Kloka, Head of advocacy unit, NGO “PRAKSIS”

Apostolos Veizis, Programmes Director Médecins Sans Frontières Greece

«People on the Move and Stranded in Greece, MSF experience and challenges»

Danai Papachristopoulou, Staff Lawyer NGO HIAS

“The importance of vulnerability in the asylum procedure”

13:30-14:00

Session 5: Conclusions

Manina Terzidou

Light lunch offered